-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --

Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

- 1) ☒ Responsive to communication(s) filed on 31 March 2004.
- 2a) ☐ This action is FINAL. 2b) ☒ This action is non-final.
- 3) ☐ Since this application is in condition for allowance except for formal matters, prosecution as to the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213.

Disposition of Claims

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Objections

1. Claim 13 is objected to because of the following informalities: "is" should be inserted after "customer data" on line 3. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim 20 is objected to because of the following informalities: "the" should be inserted after "wherein" on line 4. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claim 20 recites the limitation "the preliminary identifier" in line 2 of page 7.

There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Double Patenting

4. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

5. Claims 9-22 are rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-10 of U.S. Patent No. 6,490,445.

Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because they both teach the method and system for installing data within a mobile communication device to provide less restricted access to a wireless network.

6. Claims 9-22 are rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-19 of U.S. Patent No. 6,725,033.

Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because they both teach the method and system for installing data within a mobile communication device to provide less restricted access to a wireless network.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

7. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Art Unit: 2681

8. Claims 20-22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by applicant's submission of prior art, Zicker et al., US Patent Number 5,878,339 (hereinafter Zicker).

Regarding claim 20, Zicker discloses an apparatus for use in a wireless communications network, the apparatus configured for activation by a purchaser, the apparatus comprising: means for transmitting a first code and a second code to a wireless service provider, wherein the first code is permanently associated with the apparatus, wherein the transmitting is via a wireless link to which the apparatus has been given restricted access based on the second code, and wherein the second code is used in a determination of whether the apparatus should have less restricted access to the wireless link; means for receiving a signal including a replacement identifier, wherein the signal is transmitted over the wireless link, and wherein the replacement identifier is configured to provide the apparatus with less restricted access to the wireless link than the second code; and means for storing the replacement identifier, so that the apparatus transmits the replacement identifier in place of the original second code thereafter [col. 5: line 1 – col. 6: line 14; col. 7: lines 3-14].

Regarding claim 21, Zicker discloses the first code and the second code are initially installed during factory programming [col. 7: lines 3-14].

Regarding claim 22, it is inherent to use DTMF signals and provide means for converting the DTMF signal into a replacement identifier for storage in the memory.
